To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure with working with Michael Denigan for the past 5 years. I have found him to be a man of integrity and character. He is dedicated to helping people with their housing solutions, whether it is assisting them in purchasing, selling or saving their homes. I personally know of many that would not be able to have a home without Michael Denigan's help. You can be sure that Michael Denigan will handle your business needs with honesty and discretion. If you would have any questions about Michael Denigan please feel free to call me.

Respectfully

Jim Claxton
